SATURDAY MOVIES

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 5th @ 2:00 PM " UNDER THE STARS "

Trapped in a lifeless relationship and plagued by writer's block, a struggling romance novelist travels to Italy for inspiration. He soon falls for a spirited local who challenges everything he thought he knew about love and himself.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 12TH @ 2:00 PM " FRIED GREEN TOMATOES "

On one of trapped housewife Evelyn Couch's (Kathy Bates) Wednesday nursing home visits, she encounters Ninny Threadgoode (Jessica Tandy), a colorful old woman who brightens Evelyn's outlook by sharing tales from her past. As Ninny recounts the exploits of her free-spirited sister-in-law Idgie (Mary Stuart Masterson), owner of a small Alabama café in the 1920s, and the bond Idgie shared with her friend Ruth (Mary-Louise Parker), Evelyn gains the confidence to change her own life for the better.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 19TH @ 2:00 PM "DOG DAYS "

Elizabeth is a charming anchorwoman who seeks advice from her dog's therapist. Tara is a spunky barista who dreams of a life beyond the coffee shop. Daisy is a dog walker who's enamoured with a client. Garrett pines for a woman while trying to keep his adopt-a-dog business afloat. The beloved canines in their lives soon start to influence their careers, friendships and romantic relationships in funny and unexpected ways.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 26TH @ 2:00 PM " BEANS "

In 1990. Two Mohawk communities enter a 78-day armed stand-off with government forces to protect a burial ground from developers.

ORANGE SHIRT DAY - WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 30TH

Orange Shirt Day is a legacy of the St. Joseph Mission (SJM) residential school commemoration event held in Williams Lake, BC, Canada, in the spring of 2013. It grew out of Phyllis' story of having her shiny new orange shirt taken away on her first day of school at the Mission, and it has become an opportunity to keep the discussion on all aspects of residential schools happening annually.

The date was chosen because it is the time of year in which children were taken from their homes to residential schools, and because it is an opportunity to set the stage for anti-racism and anti-bullying policies for the coming school year. It also gives teachers time to plan events that will include children, as we want to ensure that we are passing the story and learning on to the next generations.

Orange Shirt Day is also an opportunity for First Nations, local governments, schools and communities to come together in the spirit of reconciliation and hope for generations of children to come.

SEPTEMBER

The golden-rod is yellow;
The corn is turning brown;
The trees in apple orchards
With fruit are bending down.

The gentian's bluest fringes
Are curling in the sun;
In dusty pods the milkweed
Its hidden silk has spun.

The sedges flaunt their harvest,
In every meadow nook;
And asters by the brook-side
Make asters in the brook,

From dewy lanes at morning
The grapes' sweet odors rise;
At noon the roads all flutter
With yellow butterflies.

By all these lovely tokens
September days are here,
With summer's best of weather,
And autumn's best of cheer.

But none of all this beauty
Which floods the earth and air
Is unto me the secret
Which makes September fair.

'T is a thing which I remember;
To name it thrills me yet:
One day of one September
I never can forget.

MONDAY SEPTEMBER 7th

Labour Day has been marked as a statutory public holiday in Canada on the first Monday in September since 1894. However, the origins of Labour Day in Canada can be traced back to numerous local demonstrations and celebrations in earlier decades. Such events assumed political significance in 1872, when an April Labour demonstration in Toronto, in support of striking printers, led directly to the enactment of the Trade Unions Act, a law that confirmed the legality of unions.

HAVEN HOUSE HAPPENINGS

Wow, what a busy August we've had in Haven House. We loved spending time outside on our patio and are still enjoying the flowers we planted; however, we are looking ahead to September and cooler weather. We are planning to bake our own apple crisp; we will also be doing some painting and crafts between our exercise classes. September is when school returns, we look forward to seeing the Sacred Heart Kids, and we will be talking about how school has changed since we attended, so many years ago. Enjoy yourself everyone, see you around the house.
